

Vartkes Tomassian, President

Mr. Vartkes Tomassian has amassed over 30 years of experience in project management, engineering and contract administration for major public works construction projects. His expertise as a public works contractor extends from retrofitting bridges, highway and street construction, subterranean parking structures, as well as institutional and commercial projects. He has been involved in many key projects with the Los Angeles Community College District, the Los Angeles Unified School District, the County of Los Angeles and numerous other public entities.

In 1983 Mr. Tomassian established Kahromic Contracting, Inc. and later joined Urban Development and Infrastructure to launch Ian Thomas Group in 2008. He serves as the Principal in Charge and Project Manager on a number of institutional, industrial, and commercial projects. With over two decades of experience, Vartkes has focused his career to develop solid relationships with his clients, subcontractors, and suppliers.

To compliment his role as an executive by day, Mr. Tomassian spends his spare time serving as a volunteer on the fundraising committee of his local church and school and a myriad of community organizations.
